Re: Henry, et al. v. Brown University, et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-00125
Claim No: CTUC1002324-REJ

Dear Clerk of Court:

I respectfully appeal the rejection of my claim in the Henry, et al. v. Brown University, et al. settlement. The rejection notice I received stated that my claim was denied because I did not respond to a deficiency notice allegedly sent in May 2025.

I never received any such notice—by physical mail or email—and therefore had no opportunity to correct or supplement my claim. My contact information and email address on file have remained accurate and unchanged since I filed my claim. I regularly check both my inbox and spam folders and did not see any communication regarding a deficiency.

I submitted my claim in good faith and am fully prepared to provide any documentation or information needed to resolve any issue. Because I never had a meaningful opportunity to respond, I respectfully request that my claim be reconsidered and that I be allowed to submit the necessary information so my eligibility can be accurately determined.

For future correspondence regarding this claim, I respectfully request that all notices and communications be sent by written mail to my mailing address above, in addition to any email communication, to ensure proper receipt and timely response.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Lee Michael Solomon
